

Silver Screen at the Factory supported by Dame Judi Dench

Enjoy great films. Meet new people. Stay connected with your local cinema.

Silver Screen at the Factory is a free membership scheme for anyone aged 60 and over. Members receive one complimentary cinema ticket each month for a selected Sunday screening at Leigh Film Factory.

Terms & Conditions

1. Membership

Silver Screen at the Factory membership is free and available to anyone aged 60 or over.

To join the scheme, members must complete a membership form and provide their contact details. Members will receive a Silver Screen membership card, which must be presented when booking and attending Silver Screen screenings.

2. Monthly Benefit

Silver Screen members are entitled to one complimentary cinema ticket each month for a designated Silver Screen screening at Leigh Film Factory.

3. Screening Selection

The selected screening will be chosen by Leigh Film Factory and will usually be a Sunday screening from our current programme.

Silver Screen screenings are regular public cinema screenings and are not exclusive members-only events. Members are welcome to attend on their own or with friends and family, who can purchase standard tickets.

4. Booking

Members must present their Silver Screen membership card when attending. If the member cannot present their card they will be required to pay the standard ticket price.

Bookings can be made;

- In person at Leigh Film Factory during opening hours
- On our website using the code that will be provided on joining.

Tickets are subject to availability.

5. Membership Card

Membership cards are issued to registered members and are not transferable. Cards must only be used by the person named on the membership.

Lost cards can be replaced by contacting Leigh Film Factory.

6. Keeping in Touch

By joining Silver Screen at the Factory, members agree that Leigh Film Factory may retain their contact details in order to administer the scheme and provide updates about future screenings, events and activities.

Members can request removal from the scheme or updates to their details at any time.

7. Accessibility

Leigh Film Factory is committed to providing an accessible and welcoming cinema experience. Members are encouraged to contact us in advance with any accessibility requirements.

8. Changes

Leigh Film Factory reserves the right to change screening dates, selected films or arrangements where necessary.
